What do you love about being a goalie?

I love standing behind a team that trust me to guard our net. I love being loaded with gear and taking shots that most people would run away from. I love the feeling of making an impossible save and thinking about it all week. And mostly I love the strength it has given me to keep my head up even when things don't go as well as I had hoped.

Why & when did you 1st try being a goalie?

My dad actually decided I was a goalie when I was playing in Atom B. It was my third year playing ringette and I was a foot taller and way heavier than all of the other players on the ice. So it was for everyone else's safety and I just went with it.

What no one knows about being a goalie/goalie secret

All goalies have the same pre-game routine/ritual. If you watch a goalie in a warm-up, they will probably be doing the same warm-up at every game. Once you have one that works, it's the one that sticks.
